An event in Pleasantville on Friday is aimed at supporting homeless and at-risk veterans, especially those who may have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Called the Atlantic City Regional Stand Down, it will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Max Manning Complex, 1100 Lincoln Ave., according to a news release.

“The goal is to reconnect these veterans with services they may have been disconnected from during the pandemic,” officials said.

Scheduled services include health care, mental health services and resources, benefits and claims, housing, employment and clothing.
